

SOAS #UCUSTRIKE TEACHOUT EVENT - SUPPORTED BY SOAS UNISON

FILM SCREENING & DISCUSSION

with Director Rehad Desai

In 2015, South African students at Wits University demand free tuition. The #FeesMustFall movement is met with violence and riot police on campus.

In the award winning documentary, Everything Must Fall, Wits student activists and their Vice Chancellor, Adam Habib (now incoming Director of SOAS) recount opposing sides of these events, as the movement's demand for free, decolonised education becomes a wider rallying cry for social justice: fees must fall, outsourcing must fall, poverty must fall, racism must fall - everything must fall.
